2014 Cabernet Sauvignon Yakima Valley

Cases Produced: 750

To create this Yakima Valley Cabernet Sauvignon, we did several tasting trials throughout our cellar to find the most representative barrels for the region. Our Yakima Valley Cabernet Sauvignon is a blend of some of our favorite Washington state vineyards, showcasing the best of each site and the overall diversity the valley has to offer. For the 2014 blend, we selected 30 barrels.

VINEYARD NOTES

13% DuBrul Vineyard, 26% Elerding Vineyard, 26% Outlook Vineyard, 35% Red Willow Vineyard

TASTING NOTES

This bright ruby red wine is full-bodied with beautiful aromas of black currant, dark chocolate and violet. Flavors of plum, candied fruit, fresh herbs and spice create a lasting impression, finishing with firm, yet supple tannins. Enjoy now through 2027+

VINIFICATION

Aged in French oak barrels for 20 months. 53% new oak, 47% neutral barrels.

14.1% Alcohol
