2015 Syrah, "Chapel Block" Red Willow Vineyard

Cases Produced: 420

VINEYARD NOTES

This most sought-after block of grapes is iconic in NW viticulture. The concentration and balance of Syrah from this site is world-class. Farmed by the Washington pioneer of the Syrah grape, Mike Sauer humbly and professionally gives us perfect fruit year in and out. The Chapel Block Syrah stands toe to toe with the finest in the world and will satisfy those who enjoy powerfully complex wines and the reward of long-term, cool cellaring.

TASTING NOTES

Focused and opulent with a deep violet hue and engaging aromas of wet stone, leather, orange peel and blueberry. The elegant palate is copious with flavors of fig and brambleberry, cigar box and vibrant acidity. We suggest trying this wine with wild game for optimal enjoyment!

Aged 10 months in 47% new French oak barrels.

14% Alcohol
